

Staten Island Advance

Wednesday, April 8, 1992

Catholic parents listen to speaker

The Staten Island Federation of Catholic School Parents held its April meeting last night at the Academy of St. Dorothy, Grasmere. Speaker Jerry Cammarata, a member of the Staten Island School Board, asked the federation to support removal of "Children of the Rainbow": a part of the public elementary schools curriculum which teaches first-graders about human sexuality with a stress on alternate lifestyles.