

Cammarata re-appointed to NYSSBA board

Jerry Cammarata has been re-appointed to serve as the New York City Board representative on the NYSSBA board of directors for the next two years.

He has been the Area 13 Director since 1997 and represents the City of New York Central School Board and the community school boards in Bronx, Kings, New York, Queens, and Richmond counties.

Cammarata serves on the board of trustees for the city system's Fund for Public Schools and New York City Mayor Rudolph Giuliani's Youth Services Board. He is a safety management consultant specializing in policy development and facility management to the health-care and safety industry. He is also a communications consultant to hospitals and long-term care facilities.

In addition, Cammarata is an adjunct professor in safety/mechanical technology at the City University of New York, College of Staten Island, and an adjunct lecturer in speech/language pathology and audiology at Wagner College.
