

HOFSTRA UPDATE

The Official Publication for Hofstra Alumni and Friends

Vol. 13 No. 2 Spring 2000

1968

Dr. Gerald Cammarata (B.A., M.A.'69) of Staten Island, NY, is the Staten Island representative to the New York City Board of Education and an adjunct professor at CUNY's College of Staten Island. He is a speech/language pathology and audiology consultant, and an adjunct lecturer at Wagner College. He received the president's medal from St. John's University and spoke at the commencement in May. He was featured in the June 1999 issue of Converge, an education and technology magazine, and he authored the article, Pedagogue-Speak, for the February 2000 issue of American School Board Journal.

