

HOFSTRA

The Official Publication for Hofstra Alumni and Friends

CLASS NOTES

VOL. 12 No. 3 Fall 1999

Leader of the Pack about singer-songwriter Eleanor Greenwich (B.A.), who wrote and co-wrote many '60s hit singles performed by trendy "girl groups", including "Leader of the Pack", "Going to the Chapel", and "Be My Baby"...
Dr. Ralph S. Larsen (B.B.A.) of

Franklin Lakes, NJ, is chairman and CEO of Johnson & Johnson, and has been with the company for 35 years. Recently he was elected a member of Salomon Smith Barney's international advisory board. He also serves on the boards of AT&T and Xerox Corporation, and is a former member of the boards of the New York Stock Exchange, United Negro College Fund and United Way of America...

1963

Rev. Joseph T. Barolotto (M.S.E.) of Port Jefferson, NY, is the full-time pastoral associate at St. Louis de Montfort Church, where he teaches courses in theology. He also retired as principal in the Rocky Point public school district...
Judith Hippner (B.A.) of Goshen, CT, is retired after a career in public relations. She holds two elected positions in her community...
Sally Ann Michlin (B.A.) of Monroe, CT, is an affiliate professor of English at Sacred Heart University, and recently received a grant from the Connecticut Distance Learning Consortium (CTDLC) for developing an online research paper writing course...
Michael Steinberg (B.A.) of Lansing, MI, is editor of Fourth Genre: Explorations in Non-Fiction, a new literary journal published by Michigan State University Press. He has co-authored two books on writing, as well as a stage play and two anthologies...

Each year Political Science alumni meet with students and faculty while attending a conference in Washington, D.C. Front row (l to r): Professor Emeritus of Political Science Herbert D. Rosenbaum, Cheryl D. Block '76, Patricia Mantoan '93, Barbara Paley '63, David Minsky '98. Back row: Anthony Zuco '96, Domenic J. Mantoan '94, Stefan H. Leader '65 and Christopher M. Bellomy '91

1964

35th Reunion
Homecoming 1999

Madelyn Leibowitz (B.S.E.) of West Islip, NY, a recipient of Hofstra's 1998 Alumni Achievement Award, is executive director of First Development Corp. She is also owner of ML Realty Group which specializes in the sales and leases of retail, office, industrial and land developments...

1965

Cora M. Chin (B.A.) of Wheatley, IL, and husband Steven recently returned from a cruise that traveled to Barcelona and Copenhagen. She is vice president of the DuPage Art League, and enjoys playing the stock market. They have been married for 46 years and have three children and seven grandchildren...

1966

Dr. Edward D. Westervelt (B.B.A., M.B.A.'72) of Rumson, NJ, was appointed superintendent of the Red Bank Regional School District in Little Silver, NJ...

1967

Dr. Joseph Messina (B.A., M.A.'71) of Quincy, IL, was awarded a sabbatical for the 1999-2000 academic year at Quincy University in order to complete research on Chaucer's The Canterbury

Tales... Thomas Orphanos (B.A., M.A.'70) of Foster City, CA, has implemented the renewal of the Dr. Robert Myron Art History Annual Scholarship and the establishment of the Thomas A. Orphanos Endowed Scholarship at Hofstra University...

1968

Dr. Gerald Cammarata (B.A., M.A.'69) of Staten Island, NY, was the commencement speaker at Mercy College in Dobbs Ferry, NY, where he also received an honorary doctor of science degree. He represents Staten Island on the New

Lynn Robin '68

York City Board of Education, and received the JD Award for Outstanding Service in Music in New York City Schools...
Jane Levy Mettel (B.A.) of Sugar Land, TX, received an M.A. from the University of Houston in May... Lynn Rabin (B.A.) of New York, NY, is chairman/CEO of Proprietary Media, a marketing and Internet company engaged in empowering children to learn about animal and habitat conservation. She is also an exhibiting artist and serves on the board of the Children's Aid Society's Greenwich Village Center...