

Cammarata Named WSO Officer

The World Safety Organization is proud to announce the immediate appointment of Jerry Cammarata to be its Liaison Officer to the United Nations.

The World Safety Organization (WSO) is in consultative Status Category II (non-governmental) to the United Nations Economic and Social Council, and has maintained this status since 1987.

According to Dr. Cammarata, "It is an honor and a privilege to be able to practice my professional clinical skills in the area of safety education and management quality assurance as the representative of the WSO at the United Nations. I look forward to working with the international community in such areas as safety protocols standardization and providing much needed assistance to all countries which can rely on the enormous competency and talent of the World Safety Organization.

The World Safety Organization's World Management Center is located in Warrenburg, Missouri. National offices of the WSO are also located in Moscow, Russia, and Kiev, Ukraine. Additionally, over 150 nations have been granted honorary membership in the WSO. Several WSO chapters are located in various countries of the world, including Jamaica, Australia, Malaysia, Philippine Islands, China, Trinidad, and Tobago, etc.

The WSO, which has over 12,000 individual international members plus in excess of 2,500 individual members in the USA, also lists over 1,000 local, national and multinational companies, corporations, agencies and similar entities on its rolls.

It is the hope and professional commitment of Jerry Cammarata to participate in programs of the World Safety Organization to bring the international community together, through working with the safety and environmental cabinet chiefs and ministers of all nations, to understand the significant responsibility of planning for tomorrow's communities through the use of educational programs as well as safety techniques which are friendly to the environment, workplace and generally, the human experience.

Dr. Cammarata maintains his office in Staten Island, New York, USA. He is married and the father of three children.
